cession was the worst possible policy for the

The collectors in all the border S ate ports have received instructions from the treasury Department for the apprisment of foreign goods reaching there by way of the Southern Confederacy, and for the collection of duties thereon. This is a step in the right direction. and if it is carried out effectually, the loss of revenue from the present secession, even if the collection of duties at the seconded ports is not attempted, will be simply the loss of duties upon foreign goods consumed within the Southern Confederacy. This is no very great affair, and is more than counterbalanced by the saving of the moneys heretofore expended within them to pay hungry officials. The Confederacy has a white population of only about two and a half millions, and last, but not least, the slaves consume no foreign goods.

Death of an Eminent Jurist. The Hon. John M'Lean, Justice of the U. 8. Supreme Court, died on Thursday last, at the advanced age of seventy-six. He entered Congress from the Cincinnati District, Ohio, in 1812, was made Postmaster General by President Monroe in 1823, was continued in that office by J. Q. Adams, but displaced in 1829 by Gen. Jackson, who made him Judge of the Supreme Court, which office he has filled with eminent fitness for more than thirty years. He was often suggested for the Presidency, but was never formally nomina

Don Piatt.

This individual belongs to the restless class politicians. Once having been a democrat he left that party, if we mistake not, in con sequence of a failure to get office. He the espoused Republicanism, and made a fo speeches in favor of Mr. Lincoln. After Mr. L's election, he bolted down to Springfield. but some how returned without getting any satisfactory answer. Next Senator Chase went into the Cabinet, and his successor was elected without consulting Don. Thereupon Don declares the party has "gone up," no help for it, and salt wont save it. Poor Don, the President should have given him the mission to Egypt.

The Republic of Dominica.

We notice that the N. Y. Evening Post apprehends that one of the results of the re-establishment of Spanish authority over Dominica, which is the supposed object of the recent expedition from Havans, will be the re-establishment of negro slavery, which was abolished in Dominica in 1809. BRIEN SHEHAN. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, WOOD CO.

Henry Philips and Albert Heufer vs Charles Stahler et al.

The defendant Levi Whitman will take notice that on the 29th day of March, 1861, the plaintiffs Henry Philips and Albert Heufer filed their petition against Charles Stahler, bis wife Adeline Stahler, Levi Whitman and others in the Court of Common Pleas, within and for the county of Wood and State of Ohio, and which is still pending therein, and that the object and prayer of said petition is to obtain an order for the sale of the following premises situate in Freedom township, Wood county, Ohio, and being the north-west fractional part of section eleven in township five, north range twelve east, lying on the north side of Periage river, supposed to be 12 acres more or less; also the south-west part of the east part of the south-west quarter of section two, town five north, range twelve east, containing ten acres, more or less; also the east part of the northwest fractional of section eleven, town five north of range twelve east, containing two acres moreor less; and for the application of the proceeds arising from the sale of said premises to the payment of the amount due said plaintiffs upon the note of said defendant Charles Stahler, dated September 30th, 1856, for the payment to said plaintiffs of $477 in one year after date with interest from date until paid, at the rate of ten per cent per annum; the payment of said note was secured by a mortgage upon said premises; said plaintiffs aver in said petition that a certain mortgage executed by an and recorded in vol. 3 of mortgages, page 459, of Wood county records, has been fully discharged.

Said defendant Whitman and recorded in vol. 3 of mortgages, page 459, of Wood county records, has been fully discharged.

Said defendant Whitman will also take notice that unless he answers said petition on or before the 25th day of May, 1861, judgment will be renders, against him by default according to the playe thereof.
